

Nelson's Moulding and Frame

Corner Angles

Corner Angles are used to provide extra support of the corners on large wood frames. Preventing the corners from pulling apart, especially with the added weight of glass.

Corner Angles can also be helpful in the repair of old frames. It can pull a damaged corner together, providing extra security of the former join.

- S2760 (100 qty) Small corner angle = 1 1/2 inches with four holes
- S2761 (100 qty) Large corner angle = 2 inches with four holes
- S1312 (1,000 qty) Flathead screws

Call 1-800-289-2467 to order!